Dear Mayor, Council-members and City staff-

I would like to notify you all that I am resigning my position as District 3 Councilmember effective today, due to my moving out of town.

After being coerced (against my will) into running for Council many years ago, I now look back over my time as such a great experience. I have been so fortunate to have served with such high-quality people both on our City Council and on our City payroll. There have been too many times to mention that I've appeared to be quite the hero by a citizen with a problem, when in reality it was the quick and effective action taken by our staff after a request was made. I sincerely commend you all for this and appreciate the efforts.

During my time we were challenged by the Eagleford boom, but also truly blessed with the financial windfall. The leadership shown throughout multiple weather events over the years made my job too easy. We were able to make numerous, lasting capital improvements to our Cuero, and I was lucky to be on board while it all happened.

Thank you all for your service to Cuero and for the lasting friendships that I have made with each and every one of you.

Sincerely-

Brad Hedrick
